

Application Form
Summer Papyrological Institute
Stanford University

Personal Information

1. Name (LAST, first, middle initial)

2. Home address (Permanent Address)

3. Work address (school name, department, street address, city/state/zip/country)

4. Email address

5. Telephone numbers
 Primary contact number:
 Cell phone:
 Home/Work:

6. Citizenship (if not U.S., specify country and residence status)

5. What other courses in ancient studies have you taken or taught?

6. FOR DOCTORAL CANDIDATES ONLY:

What qualifying exams (oral/written) have you passed and when?

What do you expect will be the focus of your dissertation?

Who is your dissertation director?

7. FOR POST-DOCTORAL CANDIDATES ONLY:

Title of dissertation, name of dissertation director

8. List any relevant research, awards, and publications

Personal Statement

What do you expect to gain from participation in this institute? (You may attach a separate sheet, maximum length 1 page)

Recommendations

Names of Recommenders (for doctoral candidates, one of the recommenders should be the dissertation advisor)

1)

2)

The applicant must arrange to have two confidential letters of recommendation sent directly to the address below:

JG Manning
Department of Classics
Stanford University
Building 110
Stanford, CA 94305