South American Travel Seminar
(includes international service learning component)

SUMMER 2017
Travel to Argentina and Paraguay

Approximate Dates: May 23, 2017 to June 4, 2017
Approximate Program Fee: $2,500 per student

Program fee includes: Airfare, in-country transportation, all lodging, most meals, culture activities/visits, tour guides, global emergency coverage, translators and WSU staff accompanying the group throughout the trip.

APPLY EARLY! SPACE IS LIMITED!
DEADLINE TO APPLY: NOVEMBER 1, 2016

- Learn about other cultures
- Visit sites in Buenos Aires and Asunción
- Live and learn from the locals
- International service learning (Education in local schools in Paraguay)
- Learn some Spanish or improve on what you already know

Lodging: In Argentina, students will be in a hotel with shared rooms. In Paraguay, students will be with host families (at least one English-speaker per family & many have had children who have studied in the U.S.).

All students are required to enroll in 1 or 3 credit hour travel seminar (LASI 398) at WSU and pay their regular tuition rate for summer 2017 session, which is not included in the $2,500 program fee.

*Students do not need to speak any Spanish to go on this trip as we will have translators, however for those who are studying Spanish; this will be an excellent way to get full immersion in the language.

Click here to apply

Click here for FAQs for the South American Travel Seminar

CLICK here for photos

Contact:

Ann Burger (Trip leader), ann.burger@wichita.edu or 316-978-5374