Student Conduct Process Overview

The student conduct process is used to determine if a student or student organization engaged in behavior that violates the Student Code of Conduct. Additional details are available in the Wichita State University Student Code of Conduct.

Situations where suspension or expulsion is a possibility, respondent may choose a hearing board instead of Conduct Officer. DECISIONS BY APPEAL OFFICER IS FINAL. THERE IS NO FURTHER APPEAL.

STEP #1
An incident is reported and reviewed by Conduct Officer

- No basis for investigation to proceed. Process stops here. -OR-
- Investigation initiated. Proceed to Step 2.

STEP #2
Student meets with Conduct Officer to discuss incident

- Respondent found not in violation. Process stops here.
- Respondent found in violation. Sanctions assigned.
- Respondent complies with sanctions, process stops here.
- Respondent does not comply with sanctions, student account is placed on hold until sanctions are completed.
- Respondent appeals decision. Proceed to step 3.

STEP #3
Case is appealed

- Appeal Officer upholds decision of the Conduct Officer. -OR-
- Appeal Officer overturns decision of the Conduct Officer. -OR-
- Appeal Officer remands for new process. -OR-
- Appeal Officer amends decision.

EVERY DECISION IS A CHOICE. WHAT'S YOURS?