

Lambda Alpha

20th Annual Student Symposium Saturday April 7th

The Lambda Alpha Symposium was created to encourage and recognize student research in the field of anthropology. The symposium provides students an opportunity to present a 15-minute presentation and discuss current research in an atmosphere conducive to professional development. At the end of the event, three judges will announce a winner, who will be given a prize of $100. Additionally, an award will be given for best Undergraduate presentation.

Abstracts Due Friday March 16th

Abstracts are to be no longer than 200 words

You can email your abstract to: rxwendt@wichita.edu

The following is a website to help you write a good abstract:

<https://writingcenter.unc.edu/tips-and-tools/abstracts/>