

Pursuing a degree in business?

Are you interested in pursuing a college degree in business? How does a one in sixty chance of receiving a $44,000 scholarship to attend the Barton School of Business at Wichita State University sound? If you believe that you meet the qualifications listed below, we would like to encourage you to apply to participate in the following scholarship competition.

The W. Frank Barton School of Business at Wichita State University will host the Allen, Gibbs, and Houlik, Scholarship Competition on November 13, 2009 (the Friday prior to the Distinguished Scholarship Invitational – DSI – at Wichita State University). Up to sixty academically talented students interested in a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in accounting, business administration, economics, entrepreneurship, finance, human resource management, international business, management, management information systems, or marketing will be invited to participate. Scholarship awards range from $250 to the $44,000 Clay Barton Scholarship. A student MUST participate in this competition to be considered for the $44,000 Clay Barton Scholarship.

To be eligible to compete, a student must:

- be a May 2010 high school graduate,
- have a minimum high school GPA of 3.50,
- have a minimum 24 composite ACT,
- be admitted to WSU no later than October 10, 2009,
- declare a business major, and
- submit the Yes! I Wish To Compete form by October 22, 2009.

The first sixty eligible students will be invited to participate. Your high school counselor should have a “Yes, I Wish To Compete Form”. If you have any questions regarding this competition, please call Kate Kung-McIntyre, Assistant Dean and Scholarship Coordinator, at (316) 978-3200.
