What a fast and wonderful five years Janie and I have had with you here in the Barton School of Business. I want to thank everyone for the support that you have given to Janie and me during our time here. Continue all the great work you are doing in the classroom and out of it here on campus, in the community, and across the world. The Barton School possesses great faculty, staff and students, as further evidenced by the teaching awards that the Barton School faculty receives each year including this year with Michael Flores receiving the Leadership in the Advancement of Teaching award and Stanley Longhofer receiving the Excellence in Teaching award.

As changes are continuing throughout the college and the university I know you will continue giving your support with your teaching, research and service. Interim Dean Cindy Claycomb will do a tremendous job for the Barton School, due in large part to an outstanding supporting cast: in the dean’s office with Jim Clark, Joan Adkisson, Arlene Thomas, Kate Kung-McIntyre, and Dotty Harpool; in the departments with Jen-Chi Cheng, Steve Farmer, Paul Harrison, Rick LeCompte, and Steve Porter; in the Graduate Office with Angela Jones and Kim Wilkerson; and in the centers with Pat Mcleod, Jeremy Hill, Tim Pett, Stan Longhofer, Dharma deSilva, and Jan Wolcutt.

I am so grateful to each of you who everyday have made it a pleasure to come to work. Thank you again for a wonderful experience in the Barton School.

Doug
Masud Chand was named as a Tilford Fellow for the 2013-2014 academic year. The Tilford grant aims to infuse diversity and multicultural learning outcomes in the Wichita State University curriculum.

Dr Dharma deSilva, Professor & Director Center for International Business Advancement and Chair, World Trade Council of Wichita, was elected to the Fulbright Roster since 2000 selected by peers and served assignments in several countries. He has been awarded two Fulbright Senior Specialist awards during Summer and Fall of 2013.

Summer Research Reminders

Since summer is a time for many of us to catch up on research, here are a few reminders for maximizing your time this summer.

Need an article we don’t have? Use Interlibrary Loan to request any article (or book, conference paper, and much more) that isn’t available from WSU Libraries. Log in with your myWSU ID and password (http://libraries.wichita.edu/blah/index.php/interlibrary-loan) and click on “New Request - Article.” Articles will be emailed to you as a PDF file and usually arrive within a day or two (and sometimes as fast as a couple of hours!).

Working on your tenure file? WSU Libraries has a comprehensive guide for citation searching and determining journal value: http://libraries.wichita.edu/subplus/subjects/CitSearch Find general information, or click on the Business link to find discipline specific citation searching tips.

Search multiple resources at once. Use SmartSearch to find results from all of the Libraries’ databases, ebooks, and more, all with one search. For more information on using SmartSearch, check out the help guide here: http://bit.ly/wsusmartsearch. Search boxes are located on the library’s homepage and on the Libraries tab of myWSU.

If you have questions about any of these resources, or anything else, please contact your Business librarian, Melissa Mallon, at melissa.mallon@wichita.edu. Melissa is also happy to set up one-on-one research consultations and/or departmental demos for SmartSearch or any of the business databases. Best wishes for a happy and productive summer!
