The Kansas Recovery Conference is a unique two-day gathering of hundreds of mental health consumers from across the state. Participants of the conference will come together to:

- Learn about recovery
- Meet others and hear their stories of recovery
- Discuss how to inform and educate citizens about recovery
- Be empowered through shared experiences

Join us for two jam-packed days of educational and networking opportunities together with leaders and peers in the mental health community as we continue to advocate for positive changes in ourselves and within our communities.
