This talk will define and discuss the concepts of sexual assault and consent. Myths, biases and victim blaming will be explored and challenged. Prevention and resource information will be provided, including information on how to be supportive of victims and encourage bystander intervention.