Leg Extensions

Starting Position: Sit fully in a chair with upper legs supported by chair seat. Wrap the band around one ankle while stepping on the band with the other.

Finishing Position: Lift the right foot up to hip level while keeping the left foot on the floor. Return to starting position. Perform exercise with other leg.

Notes

_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________