Side Step for Gluts

Starting Position: Tie a band right above your knees.

Notes

Finishing Position: Step out to the side with your left foot. Pick up your right foot and tap it to the inside of your left foot. Step back to the starting position with your right foot. Repeat by stepping side to side. (Exercise may be done in a seated position.)

Notes

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________