Join us in the Honors College lounge for Friday Afternoon Flicks. This week we will be showing Inside Out. Next week we will be showing Mocking Jay Part 1.

Want to know more about Honors Seminars taught next semester? All Honors students are invited Tuesday, April 5 from 7:00pm - 8:00pm (Honors College lounge, Shocker Hall) to a casual conversation with Dr. George Dehner and Dr. Peter Cohen who will present information and take questions about their popular courses, Epidemics in World History and Leadership Challenge. Our Honors Advisor, Kitti Seavey, will join us to offer advising tips after the discussion. Sponsored by the Honors Living Learning Community.

Night with the Colleges: All Honors students are invited Wednesday, April 27, 6:00pm - 8:00pm (RSC Harvest Room) for a free dinner, discussion with a dean or professor from each of the colleges, networking with fellow honors students, and an inspiring keynote address from Professor Larry Spurgeon, Larry Jones Faculty Fellow in Business Ethics, fan of Thomas Jefferson and Constitutional Law, and one of WSU's Honors College founders. RSVP NOW to reserve your spot. Questions? Contact Alexis Loudermilk, WHEAT Academic Chair at arloudermilk@wichita.edu.

The End of Year Celebration You are invited to celebrate the end of the year and recognize graduates in the 2015-2016 Cohen Honors College on Friday, May 13, 2016 in the RSC Harvest Room from 10:00am - 11:30am. Student community engagement efforts will be recognized for all Cohen Honors College students. Please RSVP by Friday, May 6. December and May graduates please include bios in your RSVP.

Cohen Enhancement Scholarship - Information is posted on our website www.wichita.edu/honors under "Scholarships." The new Cohen Enhancement Scholarships support Honors scholars in service with funding for participation individually or as a group in activities such as study abroad, unpaid internships in the public sector, undergraduate research or creative activity, and attending national conferences. Awards are made based on the merit of the proposed activity and without regard to financial need.
