Maximize your success with Wichita State University’s graduate degree in sport management.

Combining classroom and real-world learning opportunities with the resources found on Wichita State’s campus and throughout the city of Wichita, WSU offers international graduate students everything they need to reach their career goals.

Program basics:
• The M.Ed. in sport management is a 36-credit-hour program that can be completed in as little as two years. Students must complete a comprehensive written examination to graduate. No thesis is required.
• Curriculum covers everything from industry policies and legal issues to financial and industry trends.
• Students gain practical skills, professional connections and real-world experience through a required two-semester internship.
• For more information, visit www.wichita.edu/sportmanagement

Gain experience while still in school:
• WSU has sport industry connections locally and nationally.
• These connections give our students sport management experience through internships with real sports organizations.
• Our students have internships on WSU’s campus, throughout the greater Wichita area and even with professional teams across the nation.
• Student internships sometimes lead to a job offer.

The Wichita State campus.
• Our campus is two square kilometers in size and is a combination of priceless outdoor sculptures, unique architecture and beautiful landscaping.
• International students from more than 110 countries choose to study at Wichita State.
• Getting to class is convenient. Walking across campus only takes a few minutes.
• WSU’s campus is an ideal place for sport management students, with its state-of-the-art basketball arena, baseball and softball stadiums, an 18-hole golf course, tennis complex, bowling alley and fully equipped recreation facility, plus top-level college athletic events, intramural and club sports throughout the year.
