1. A scholarship will be awarded annually to a student enrolled full or part time at Wichita State University, Fairmount College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, studying romance languages.

2. No recipient will be excluded from consideration based on race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, sexual orientation, marital status, status as a veteran or disability.

3. The award will be available to a new freshman student each year. The recipient is to be selected during the spring semester prior to entry into the University.

4. The amount of the scholarship is $1,000.00 which is to be awarded in two (2) separate installments of $500.00 each. $500 will be awarded at the time of entry for the fall term and the second $500.00 will be awarded at the beginning of the spring term. The spring semester award is contingent upon successful completion of the first semester's work with a minimum 3.0 GPA for all courses taken in the romance languages.

5. First consideration will be given to the following qualities: a) overall scholarship of the candidates, b) aptitude for foreign language learning, c) strength of interest in the language and culture the candidate is expecting to study and d) potential as a leader in demonstrating to others the value of foreign language study.

6. Special consideration shall be given to students interested in becoming teachers of foreign language because of Dr. Savaino's distinguished career in foreign language teaching.

7. The award will be given without regard to financial need.

8. The Scholarship Office, a department within the Division of Student Affairs of Wichita State University, will administer the scholarship and make the award based on the recommendation approved by the department of Modern & Classical Language or Literatures.

9. The scholarship is for one year only and shall go to a new incoming freshman each year.
