

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Wichita State University
Department of Mathematics, Statistics & Physics

- Type Appointment: Probationary (tenure-eligible) junior level position in Mathematics.
- Rank: Assistant Professor
- Starting Date: Fall Semester, 2012
- Research Area: Applied Mathematics or Statistics.
- Required Qualifications: Ph.D. in the Mathematical Sciences.
Active in research with strong research potential.
Strong commitment to excellence in teaching.
Excellent communication skills.
Successful experience with diverse populations.
- Preferred Qualifications: Preference given to some background in Statistics, successful classroom teaching experience, research area in Applied Mathematics or Statistics, progress toward establishing a strong research record, and expectation of developing externally funded research grants.
- Salary: Negotiable
- Application Evaluation: Complete application package must be received by February 10, 2012 and then monthly until position is filled.

Candidates must apply on line at <http://jobs.wichita.edu> to apply for the position. Completed applications should include application letter, curriculum vita, statements about teaching and research; and, have three references send letters by February 10, 2012 to:

Professor Stephen W. Brady, Search Committee Chair
Wichita State University
1845 Fairmount St
Department of Mathematics, Statistics, and Physics
Wichita, Kansas 67260-0033
e-mail: brady@math.wichita.edu Fax: 316-978-3748

Offers of employment are contingent upon completion of a satisfactory criminal background check as required by Board of Regents Policy. WSU is a AA/EEO employer.