2016 Midwest Law Enforcement Conference

Enemies Among Us: Encountering Terrorism in the Heartland

June 6-8, 2016

Doubletree by Hilton Airport Hotel & Conference Center
Wichita, KS
2016 MIDWEST LAW ENFORCEMENT CONFERENCE

Since 1994 the Wichita Crime Commission in partnership with the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, U.S. Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Sedgwick County Sheriff, Wichita Police Department, U.S. Attorney and District Attorney, has produced and hosted the Midwest Law Enforcement Conference. This two and a half day conference features some of the top criminal justice instructors in the United States. The conference is certified by the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Center making it eligible for 20 hours of continuing education credit for Kansas Law Enforcement Officers.

2016 KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Ed McCormack
Director of Executive Protection for Matador Security Company, Inc. a wholly owned subsidiary of Koch Industries

“Al – Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula (AQAP) Inspire Magazine Threat and Lone Wolf Terrorism”

In September of 2015, AQAP (Internet slang for Al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula) published its latest edition of Inspire Magazine, in which both Charles and David Koch were added to their assassination list. As Director of Executive Protection for Koch Industries, Ed McCormack will speak to the seriousness of the threat and how Lone Wolf Terrorism attacks are a concern for us and law enforcement throughout the country due to AQAP’s effort to inspire others to commit acts of terrorism and/or assassination to further their causes. Lone Wolf attacks are difficult to detect and specific mitigation efforts must be undertaken to detect and thwart such attacks.
