The Kodály Music Educators of Kansas present
A Two-Part Spring, 2012 Workshop

Jump Start Kodály!
and
How to Start a Family Folk Dance Tradition
With Trish Ranson, Stillwater, OK

Saturday, April 21, 2012
(9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.)
Includes lunch!
Cost $5-10, pay what you can!
University United Methodist located at
2220 N. Yale, Wichita, KS
Contact: kodaly@wichita.edu

KMEK is an affiliated chapter of the Organization of American Kodály Educators

“Do a little dance!” and then get a head start on your Kodály Certification Courses this Summer!

Level I Students: Meet with WSU Kodály program director, Kirk Olson and learn about what to expect from the courses, begin your song collection, build relationships with other students!

Level II Students: Meet with Level II instructor Lisa Simmelink and begin work in preparation for the summer!

Level III Students: Meet with KMEK President-Elect and 2009 Level III Grad Hannah Northorns to begin coursework for the summer!

Registration $5-10, pay what you can this includes the costs for lunch, served by KMEK

Saturday, April 21, 2012
9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
University United Methodist located at
2220 N. Yale, Wichita, KS

Visit www.kmek.org and www.wichita.edu/kodaly for more info about the workshop

Presented by the Kodály Music Educators of Kansas