

Political Science Department Honors Track

(approved 1/26/07)

In order to be admitted to the Political Science Honors Track, students must:

- Receive an "A" in two of our five core courses (121, 220, 226, 232, 365)
- Have an average GPA of 3.0.

In order to obtain Departmental Honors in Political Science, students must meet the following criteria:

- Obtain a 3.5 average or greater for the five core courses (121, 220, 226, 232, 365)
- Take an additional course beyond the introductory one in each of the four sub-fields (American Politics, International Politics, Comparative Politics, Political Theory*) *This course requirement is waived until a new theorist joins the faculty.
- Take an additional 6 hours of political science courses beyond the 33 hours required for a major.
- Maintain a 3.5 GPA for all political science courses
- Receive an "A" or "A-" for the Senior Seminar capstone course.

See the Department Chair if you qualify and would like to be admitted to the Department Honors Track.