Expanding Your Horizons (EYH) is a half day event primarily for girls in middle school. This fourth annual half-day event will include hands-on activities in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM). Attendees will get a chance to meet STEM role models and learn more about careers in those fields. Our ultimate goal is to motivate girls to consider STEM careers.

A Career Workshop Primarily for Young Women in Grades 6-8

Keynote Speaker
Olivia Pavco-Giaccia is an award-winning children’s book author whose focus on the synergies between science, entrepreneurship, and girl-centric activism is impacting both local and national dialogs. In addition to finishing her degree in Cognitive Science from Yale University, she is the founder and CEO of the social venture, LabCandy, whose mission is to focus young kids’ (especially girls’) interest in STEM. LabCandy’s products are now enjoyed by kids around the world. Named as a national innovator for positive change by NationSwell, Olivia’s first book “Ava & The Copper Key” was awarded a Gold Medal in Moonbeam’s Children’s Book Awards. She was selected as one of Glamour Magazine’s Top 10 College Women of 2015, along with being tapped as one of HerCampus’s “22 Under 22 Most Inspiring College Women.” She has collaborated with a variety of STEM-focused initiatives including Imagine magazine and the Women’s Leadership Initiative. Olivia’s infectious enthusiasm for this work has led to a number of speaking opportunities and community leadership roles, including participation in the annual USA Science & Engineering Festival in Washington, DC.
