ENTREPRENEURSHIP FOR INNOVATIVE EDUCATORS

ENTR 750 Workshop in Entrepreneurship

June 7-18, 2010

Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

“I found this workshop to be an invaluable tool in preparing my students for their future in business…”

A three hour graduate-level course, designed to introduce or strengthen educators’ knowledge about the contemporary world of entrepreneurship and small business. You’ll be exposed to creative thinking and the importance of innovation and change.

Learn how to:

• Encourage the entrepreneurial attitude in the classroom and at home.

• Share the importance of the private enterprise system.

• Use your entrepreneurial skills to your advantage at school and elsewhere.

Taught by a team of University professors and local business leaders.

A limited number of scholarships will be available.

Please contact the Center for Entrepreneurship with any questions.
