Cebration of Teaching
With College of Education Student Interns

Tuesday,
April 15, 2014
3:00 p.m.
Room 180, Gym
WSU Metroplex (29th & Oliver)

You are invited to meet the Kansas Teacher of the Year Team.

The KTOY team will share their experiences and accomplishments and will have their audience fully engaged through media, laughter, anecdotes, and active involvement.

This is a wonderful opportunity for teacher candidates and student interns to meet with these outstanding teachers, learn more about the teaching profession and be inspired to continue pursuing a career in teaching.

Fall 2014 Student Intern & Cooperative Teacher Meeting
Thursday, May 8th
4:45 - 6:55 pm
At the Metroplex, Room 132

This meeting is for current 2B Students (those who will be interning in Fall 2014) and their Cooperating Teachers.

Student Interns and Cooperating Teachers will receive valuable information regarding expectations and responsibilities for the Fall 2014 Semester.

The Kansas Association of Teachers of Science (KATS) will hold its 45th Annual “KATS Kamp” Science Education Conference at the Rock Springs Conference Center near Junction City, KS, on April 10-12, 2014.

KATS Kamp attracts hundreds of science educators in early elementary through post-secondary levels, including many pre-service teachers.

This year’s theme is “Timeless Teaching for EVERY Generation.” Keynote speakers include: Juliana Texley (NSTA President-Elect), Shane Lyle (Kansas Geological Society), Matt Krehbiel (KSDE), and Steve Jacobs (Science Advisor for MythBusters).

More information about the conference—including registering, presenting, exhibiting, donating, and recruiting—can be found at www.kats.org.
