WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 2, 2014 – Jennifer Lane has been named Public Relations and marketing manager of the Ulrich Museum of Art at Wichita State University. Lane began her new position November 24.

“Jennifer brings a diverse set of skills to her position, and we are pleased to have her at the Ulrich,” Bob Workman, Ulrich Museum of Art director said. “Jennifer is committed to our efforts of community enrichment by making the art of our time more accessible.”

“I love art and I love being on campus. My new position with the Ulrich Museum is a dream,” Lane said. “The staff at the Ulrich are passionate about the museum’s mission and I’m excited to be a part of such a fine team.”

Lane comes to the museum from Entercom Communications where she oversaw the online presence of five Wichita radio stations. Lane is a graduate of Wichita State. She studied Communication, Sociology, and Anthropology. As a student graphic designer for the Rhatigan Student Center Lane worked on the team that successfully marketed the Rhatigan Renewal Project, resulting in the modernized student center the campus enjoys today.

She fills the position previously held by Jessy Clonts Day, who relocated to Houston in November. Lane will soon begin promoting the first exhibition of the spring semester, Evan Roth// Intellectual Property Donor, which will go on view January 24.
