   b. Current and future initiatives were discussed
   c. Discussion on the comprehensive campaign planning
      i. Overview of process, consultants and feasibility study
      ii. Leadership briefing dinners with the President begin tonight. Briefings will be with 12-15 potential donors to discuss possibilities for the vision to reality campaign.
      iii. Not sure what the final campaign will look like but projected total will be for approximately 35 million.

IV. President Bardo Meeting Report
   a. Gina reported that she met with President Bardo last week and a second meeting was convened with the constituent heads to discuss the budget.
   b. Dr. Bardo is focused on the innovation campus. He has hired an executive director (Ken Russell) for the advanced networking research institute.
   c. Dr. Bardo is hoping for a 3% merit increase this year and is planning for a 3% increase for classified staff, should they vote to leave civil service. Increases in property insurance, counseling and testing staff, financial aid staff are being discussed to accommodate the increase in students. Looking for an increase of 20,000 credit hours.
   d. Dr. Bardo anticipates flat funding from the state. He anticipates that a technology fee will be granted to fund distance education and the virtual one-stop.
   e. Dr. Bardo thinks that the parking fee will be increased to help with parking issues and the shuttle. We may be looking at metered spots on campus.
   f. These budget issues are being reviewed with a preliminary presentation to KBOR scheduled in the next month or so. He will also be discussing funding vs. the requests from the board, as well as the financial plan vs. the strategic plan.

V. New/Old Business
   a. University Policies Recommendations
i. Gina received a memo from Ted stating that he is willing to discuss the recommendation from July 2013.

ii. The evaluations review committee will be chaired by Connie Dietz and the grievance review committee will be chaired by Ellen Abbey.

iii. Gina has charged these ad hoc committees to:
   1. Review what policies we currently have,
   2. Research best practices and,
   3. Make recommendations to move forward.

iv. Gina has asked that both committees have their first meeting prior to the May 1 general meeting

b. EEO request for ombudsperson for UP’s – Gina spoke to Francisco for clarification on his suggestion for this addition. Francisco feels that the ombudsperson should be a neutral party. They should not be an advocate for either party, but can assist if needed. Francisco will bring this information to the grievance ad hoc committee.
