This course will be a brief survey of many different musical traditions found throughout the world. We will focus primarily on traditional and folk music of each region, learning what makes each culture’s musical contributions unique and valued. Students will learn through listening, watching, and even (a little) optional group participation. Cultures covered will be Native America, Africa, Caribbean, Brazil, India, Japan, and Indonesia. No previous musical experience is required for this class - just an open mind and ear.

Applications may be picked up at Senior Services: Downtown Senior Center or by contacting:
