Strategic Planning: Fairmount College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Fairmount College is diverse:
- 236 LAS courses include diversity content;
- 32 percent of the 4,089 LAS enrollees are racial or ethnic minorities;
- 62 percent of LAS majors are female;
- 20 percent of LAS majors are 30 or older.

Fairmount College has seen significant increases in research grants:
- Experienced 70 percent increase in research grants from Fiscal Year 2015 to Fiscal Year 2017;
- Procured $4.79 million in grants in Fiscal Year 2017;
- Procured more than $10 million in grants to date in Fiscal Year 2018.

Recent successful grant applicants include George Bousfield, biological sciences, and Rui Ni, psychology.

Fairmount College faculty teach:
- 33 percent of all Honors Seminars;
- 67 percent of all honors courses;
- 80 percent of all regular courses with honors subsections.

Fairmount College is diverse:
- 44 percent of all WSU online credit hours;
- 48 percent of all non-degree for-credit enrollments.

Fairmount College faculty teach:
- 39 percent of all Badge courses;
- 53 percent of all Badge course enrollments;
- 49 percent of all credit hours in non-degree, for-credit courses.

Fairmount College saw a 54 percent increase in wholly online students from Fall 2016 to Fall 2017. One hundred-eighty one majors are now enrolled in online degree programs.

Fairmount College students get hands-on experience:
- The Etzanoa excavation near Arkansas City will provide applied learning opportunities for years to come. It is only one example of real life, hands-on learning opportunities for Fairmount College students.

The Fairmount College Student Advisory Council was created in 2017. 11 active members report student concerns directly to the dean and support programming designed to enhance Fairmount College.

Fairmount College provides:
- 44 percent of all WSU online credit hours;
- 48 percent of all non-degree for-credit enrollments.

The Fairmount College Student Advisory Council: Created in 2017, 11 active members report student concerns directly to the dean and support programming designed to enhance Fairmount College.

Fairmount College faculty teach:
- 39 percent of all Honors Seminars;
- 67 percent of all honors courses;
- 80 percent of all regular courses with honors subsections.

The Fairmount College Student Advisory Council was created in 2017. 11 active members report student concerns directly to the dean and support programming designed to enhance Fairmount College.

The Fairmount College Student Advisory Council was created in 2017. 11 active members report student concerns directly to the dean and support programming designed to enhance Fairmount College.