Position Announcement

Assistant Professor of Organizational Behavior / Human Resource Management

The W. Frank Barton School of Business at Wichita State University in Wichita, Kansas is seeking qualified applicants for a tenure-eligible position at the assistant professor level. Wichita State University is located in the largest economic, industrial, cultural, and population center of Kansas. The university has strong ties to the business community.

Major Activities: Teaching undergraduate and graduate level (MBA) courses in Organizational Behavior and Human Resource Management, engaging in research leading to publications and other scholarly output; serving on faculty and other committees; and participating in other appropriate service and professional activities. The teaching load will consist of a minimum of 6 hours per semester.

Salary: Competitive and commensurate with experience, education and research potential.

Qualifications: Applicants must hold a PhD in Organizational Behavior and / or Human Resource Management. Applicants must demonstrate success in research publication and have successful experience with diverse populations. Desirable qualifications include the following: should be able to present evidence of teaching success in OB/HRM courses, and excellent oral and written communication skills. Additional desirable qualifications include a background that would demonstrate a fit with the Barton School mission / vision that emphasizes Entrepreneurship and International Business. In addition a commitment to practitioner organizations in HR at either the local or national level is a plus.

Application: To ensure full consideration, an application letter plus current vita, evidence of teaching effectiveness and samples of published research must be received by May 14th. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. All materials are to be sent to Dr. Steve Farmer, Search Committee Chair; Department of Management; Wichita State University; Wichita, KS 67260-0088.

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY IS AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY/ AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER