That Gay Group! Opens LGBT Resource Library

(Wichita, KS) The student leaders of Wichita State’s That Gay Group! have started a project to expand resources available to students, faculty, and staff who would like to have access to library resources by and for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender people. The collection is made up of donated and purchased books whose topics focus on LGBTQ issues, history, and identity. That Gay Group! will begin the project during WSU’s Pride Week, April 25-29, 2011, and plans to open the library at the beginning of the Fall 2011 semester.

“This is an exciting opportunity for WSU community members to have a quiet, safe place to access these materials. TGG! is proud to provide this resource for those seeking to learn more about LGBT people and our history.” – Brad Thomison, TGG! Alumni Advisor

Members of the Wichita State University and surrounding community are invited to donate books or money to help grow this resource library. A book drop-off bin has been placed on campus in the Sociology Department main office located in Room 408 of Lindquist Hall. Check donations to purchase books may be sent to: That Gay Group!, c/o Jennifer Pearson, Wichita State University, Campus Box 25, 1845 Fairmount Wichita, KS 67260-0025.

That Gay Group! is one of Wichita State University’s longest running non-greek recognized student organization celebrating 11 years of creating a safe space for LGBT and Ally students, faculty, and staff at WSU. That Gay Group meets regularly when school is in session--you can find us every Thursday night at 7:00pm in the Sunflower Room on the lower level of the Rhatigan Student Center.
