Would you enjoy working in a public observatory / astronomy museum emphasizing participatory learning? If so, a position we have open may be for you. The Observatory Program Manager has responsibility for performing and coordinating public and school programs and development, as well as exhibit design and construction at the Lake Afton Public Observatory. This is a full time position expected to begin on October 22. For a complete list of responsibilities, required and preferred qualifications, and information related to the application process go to:

A list of the materials required in the application package can be found at the above cited web site. For full consideration this application package must be submitted through https://www.hrepartners.com/Jobs/wsu_jobs.htm no later than 5:00 p.m. CDT on 8/1/2006.

Wichita State University is an AA/EEO employer.

* The Lake Afton Public Observatory is operated by the WSU Fairmount Center for Science and Mathematics Education.